

PROBLEM

Team administrators are unable to view and edit, at a high level, what users and objects are part of a parent team's sub teams, causing confusion in the incident management process

UNDERSTANDING THE PROBLEM

Product Audit

Identifying current issues and noting severity of the problem

User interviews

Understanding how current users are using the feature and identifying their pain points